Hi Maria,
Hi Maria,

Here is what happened today. I told her y'all were working on the 106. I also said it would be great to catch the lady (Linda) because she seems to be the one in charge of the office.

Well...now they are not answering the call button, even turned off all the lights and when we tried to call, they stated they weren't Able Security but ASI...even though we know it's one and the same. Steve wrote all the plates down of the vehicles that were there today; I will send those to you when he returns. He waited around for over an hour and nobody came in or out. We will keep trying but I would recommend at least starting the 106 on Walter Roberts.

I talked to them on Friday they have made several attempts. Old lady is locked inside of business. Keeps saying she has given them both the information. They are not cooperating. We may have to do sub-service. They were trying to avoid that. I will ask them to do affidavits for sub-service.

Hello,

Both set of documents came back today marked "Unable To Forward, No forwarding Order On File Return To Postmaster Of Original Addressee For Review" I have no idea what that means. It shows they left two notices but it does not tell me if the address of 3024 Fort Worth Ave., Dallas, Tx. 75211 is a good address or not! Can you ask your client? Let me know if you would like it tried in person.
